GENERAL STRIKE IN BUENOS AIRES AND ITS VICINITY

STRIKE CALLED AS A PROTEST AGAINST THE NEW PEN-SION LAW

(By United Press)
Buenos Aires, Argentine, May 3.—A general strike, effective throughout the country, last night was ushered in by violence.

A bomb exploded in a coach of the Southern passenger train leaving Buenos Aires, causing serious injury to a guard and lesser injuries to a number of passengers. The guard suffered a broken leg.

The strike was called by socialists and labor unions as a protest against the new pension law which would allow all workers to retire on pensions from a government fund after 25 years of service.

The explosion on the railroad train caused excitement throughout the capital, citizens fearing recurrence of the fatal riot of five years ago when hundreds were killed on the streets of Buenos Aires.

The general strike in Mendoza, western terminus of the trans-Argentine line and the transfer point of the trans-Indian railroad to Chile was reported to have forced closing of all business houses.

Rosario, big cattle and grain shipping board near the mouth of the River Platte, was also tied up.

In Mendoza strikers attacked two business houses, breaking the windows and wrecking the interior.

Police did not interfere. Many business houses in Buenos Aires were closed today and will not reopen until the outcome of the struggle is indicated.

It is understood legal advisors of the labor organizations are preparing to attack the pension laws as unconstitutional.

Labor organizations, anarchists, socialists and communists have affected a coalition to oppose enforcement of the measure which became effective this month. Extensive demonstrations against the law were held in Buenos Aires last night, big crowds marching down to Avenida De Mayo from the congressional buildings to the plaza surrounding the financial district.

Smashed Automobiles Must Pay State Tax, Even If Stored, Court Rules

St. Paul, May 3.—No matter if it is smashed and in storage, an auto is subject to the state tax.

The question of liability of such cars, which has been in doubt ever since the present auto tax law went into effect, was decided by the state supreme court today.

The case was an appeal from a suit of the state to collect the tax from Ed Peterson, Kittson county. The Kittson county court held Peterson, owner of a car which was wrecked late in 1921 and since kept in his garage, need pay only the personal property tax on its value wrecked.

The supreme court reversed that decision, declaring the tax is not a privilege tax, but a tax on property.

TAX RATE BATTLE IN FINAL STAGE

WILL DETERMINE WHAT EACH

YEAR

MELLON PLAN SUPPORTERS BRING UP QUESTION OF SURTAXES

(By United Press)
Congress Today
Senate: Discusses tax bill. Immigration conferees expect to conclude agreement. Muscle Shoals hearing continues. Foreign relations committee considers calendar bills. House: Routine business.

Washington, May 3.—The tax rate battle that will determine what everyone will have to pay the government next year entered its final stage today.

Mellon plan supporters brought the question of surtaxes—the key-stone of their plan—before the senate for action.

3 IMPORTANT POINTS CONSIDERED

Washington, May 3.—Only three important points remain to be acted upon — income rates, corporation taxes and inheritance levy—as the oratorical contest was resumed here today.

Here is how the various factions stood:

The Mellon plan adherents were ready to compromise on maximum surtaxes higher than 25 per cent. They are said to be willing to go as high as 35 per cent.

The democrats had a graduated scale which runs up to 40 per cent on big incomes.

One group of progressives wanted 50 per cent as a maximum but their chances looked slim.

Senator McCormick had a graduated scale scheme that run up to 37 per cent (the house passed a 37 1/2 per cent provision.)

The odds, however, favored the democratic rate of forty per cent. Similarly the democrats seemed to have the edge on the tax rates on small incomes with their 2 1/2 per cent provision. The republicans were standing for 3.6 per cent and said they would refuse to compromise.

Regarding the corporation and inheritance taxes, the lines seemed about evenly divided. Both plans will raise about the same amount of money.

The radio tax of ten per cent was wiped out by a 40 to 13 vote, thus repudiating recommendations of the senate financial committee.

This lopped off another $10,000,000 in expected revenue.

CLAIMS SURTAX FAVORS BIG BUSINESS

Washington, May 3.—The Mellon surtax plan was drawn as a favor to big business, Senator Simmons, North Carolina, democratic tax leader charged in the senate today when the rates were formally taken up for a vote.

Simmons opened the fight for the democratic 40 per cent maximum surtax instead of the Mellon 25 per cent proposal.

Tracing the history of Mellon's tax recommendations, Simmons declared the treasury secretary had always favored an extremely low surtax—much lower than congress ever saw fit to adopt.

Officers are looking for Mrs. Ona Woodruff and James Reynolds who were released last week after being arrested in connection with the bank robbery. No other prisoners escaped and none were hurt, although the explosion shook surrounding territory.

PREPARE SHOWDOWN ON ISSUE RAISED

Washington, May 3.—Aroused over the latest come-back from former Attorney General Daugherty, the senate committee investigating his conduct of office today prepared to force a showdown on the issue Daugherty had raised.

The committee is planning to challenge the authority of Daugherty to stop examination of his private telegrams and will ask Attorney General Stone to contest action on the injunction sought for this purpose by the former attorney general against the Brookhart committee, the senate sergeant at arms and the Western Union and Postal Telegram companies.

The committee decided today to take this action not only because of the injunction against its investigation, but against all senatorial quizzes.

While the suit is directed technically at the production of telegrams, Daugherty challenges the power of the committee to investigate questions raised at the senate resolution, namely, his alleged failure to prosecute anti-trust cases and Albert B. Fall, Harry Sinclair and E. L. Doheny.

Members of the committee have been ordered to appear Friday, May 9th, to show cause why injunctions should not be issued.

Havana, Cuba, May 3.—The government took stern measures today to prevent agitation in connection with the military outbreak in the province of Santa Clara, around the city of Cienfuegos.

All editions of the newspapers Heraldo De Cuba and El Heraldo were confiscated by police on the ground that they contained exaggerated reports of the movement against the government of President Zayas.

It was reported the editor of Heraldo De Cuba will be deported as a "pernicious foreigner."

The government claimed the situation was "well in hand" and meagre reports reaching the capital indicated loyal troops were restoring order in the affected areas.

Troops still were mobilizing in the vicinity of Cienfuegos.

CUBA ASKS TO BUY AMMUNITION FROM U. S.

Washington, May 3.—The Cuban government has asked the United States to sell it a large quantity of ammunition for use in quelling revolutionary disturbances in the island. It was learned at the state department today.

Although the amount the Cuban government has asked for was not revealed, it was indicated that it is prepared to spend about $400,000. Secretary of State Hughes has turned over the Cuban request to Secretary of War Weeks to learn if it can be met. Weeks will take no action until Monday.

In making public the Cuban request, the state department officials expressed full confidence in the Zayas administration that it would be able to cope with the budding revolution in the island.

"Long Ago, Sweetheart of Mine," and "A Maid Sings Light," are the soprano numbers; the others are "The Swan Bent Low," and "The Sea."

Numerous other records, too, are issued today by Victor.

ST. PAUL BANK CLOSES ITS DOORS

CAPITAL TRUST & SAVINGS BANK TAKES ACTION THIS MORNING

(By United Press)
St. Paul, May 3.—The Capital Trust and Savings bank, one of the largest in St. Paul, with $5,000,000 deposits, closed its doors at 9 a. m. today.

This is the first time a St. Paul bank has closed during the agricultural depression.

The closing came after a practically all night session of the directors and officers with A. J. Veigel, state superintendent of banks.

The difficulties, Mr. Veigel said, are due to frozen assets in the form of North Dakota and Montana paper, which cannot now be liquidated. The bank has a capital stock of $500,000 and is operated in connection with the Capital National bank. The national institution, it is said, is not affected by the closing.

The reports here are the other St. Paul banks and the clearing houses will come to the aid of the Capital Trust & Savings bank. H. L. Mitchell is president of the bank. It was organized December 16, 1890.

Run Is Started
As news of the failure of the trust company spread about town, depositors in both institutions started a run that reached its height shortly after noon.

The building at Fifth and Robert streets was thronged with clamoring depositors.

Police kept fairly good order, but many were jostled about and many women had to be assisted out into the air.

An old shoemaker who had saved $800 after many years to bring his family over from Europe fainted in the trust company lobby and was taken away in an ambulance.

The state of Minnesota, it was learned, had $46,000 in the institution when it closed, but will lose little since surety bonds cover state deposits. The interest, however, may be lost.

Long after the bank's noon closing time, the lobby still was thronged and officials feared to close the withdrawal windows in the face of customers. An hour after noon the lobby was still jammed. The Merchants Trust and Merchants National bank and the First National bank were helping out the Capital National bank.

THOUGHT MARTIN MAY BE FLY-

A BLINDING SNOW
STORM

(By United Press)
Cordova, Alaska, May 3.—First word of Major Frederick L. Martin and Sergeant Alva Harvey, round the world fliers, since they hopped off from Chignik for Dutch Harbor, has come to leaders of the search for the missing fliers.

Alaskan Indians living in a little native village town at the head of Chignik lagoon, reported that they saw Martin's plane, the Seattle, flying over the lagoon Wednesday.

This caused the belief that Martin had altered his course somewhat on account of the winds and poor visibility after leaving Chignik, and instead of following the coast as planned, has taken the overland route across the Alaskan peninsula.

RADIO STATIONS SEEK LOST FLIERS

Bremerton, Washington, May 3.—Northern radio stations reported today that despite a thorough search along the Alaskan coast line from Chignik to Dutch Harbor, no trace has been found of Major Frederick L. Martin, commander of the American round the world flight squadron.

Fears were expressed that Major Martin and his mechanic, Sergeant Alva Harvey, who have not been heard from since Wednesday when they took off from Chignik in a blinding snow storm, are short of food and suffering severely from exposure even if fortunate enough to land safely.

Every inland cove and bay along the coast was being scoured by government vessels in the hope that the daring aviators might still be found.

TO CONTINUE FLIGHT WITHOUT FLAGSHIP

This word came in a radiogram from Lieutenant Smith who has assumed command of the flight, to the headquarters of the 13th naval district here. Smith said if flying weather permitted, they would not stop at Nazan Islands at Atka as scheduled, but would continue on to Chignik on the island of Attu.

Such a jump would total 880 miles—probably the longest of the entire flight.

All editions of the newspapers Heraldo De Cuba and El Heraldo were confiscated by police on the ground that they contained exaggerated reports of the movement against the government of President Zayas.

It was reported the editor of Heraldo De Cuba will be deported as a "pernicious foreigner."

The government claimed the situation was "well in hand" and meagre reports reaching the capitol indicated loyal troops were restoring order in the affected areas.

Troops still were mobilizing in the vicinity of Cienfuegos.

CUBA ASKS TO BUY AMMUNITION FROM U. S.

Washington, May 3.—The Cuban government has asked the United States to sell it a large quantity of ammunition for use in quelling revolutionary disturbances in the island. It was learned at the state department today.

Although the amount the Cuban government has asked for was not revealed, it was indicated that it is prepared to spend about $400,000. Secretary of State Hughes has turned over the Cuban request to Secretary of War Weeks to learn if it can be met. Weeks will take no action until Monday.

In making public the Cuban request, the state department officials expressed full confidence in the Zayas administration that it would be able to cope with the budding revolution in the island.

Rachmaninoff Plays His Concerto For Record

St. Paul, May 3.—Rachmaninoff, the distinguished pianist and composer, and Stokowski's Philadelphia symphony orchestra contribute six records to the current Victor issue.

These contain two whole movements of the pianist's own Concerto No. 2 in C minor.

Four of the late Edward MacDowell's melodies, two of soprano and two for baritone, are included on a Victor record this week. Olive Kling and Royal Dadrman sing them. "Long Ago, Sweetheart of Mine," and "A Maid Sings Light," are the soprano numbers; the others are "The Swan Bent Low," and "The Sea."

Numerous other records, too, are issued today by Victor.

RICHARDS WILL NOT QUIT TENNIS TEAM

The association made public a letter from Richards, authorizing the statement that his resignation is withdrawn.

ALLOW VOTING MEMBERSHIPS TO ALL CREEDS

(By United Press)
New York, May 3.—By a vote of 1,027 to 366, the national convention of the Y. W. C. A. today adopted a resolution allowing voting memberships to persons of all religious creeds.

The measure must be adopted again in 1926 to become finally effective. Adoption came after a bitter debate in which the younger members, favoring it, were opposed by the older group, called fundamentalists.

ST. PAUL BANK CLOSES ITS DOORS

CAPITAL TRUST & SAVINGS BANK
TAKES ACTION THIS MORNING

(By United Press)

St. Paul, May 3.—The Capital Trust and Savings bank, one of the largest in St. Paul, with $5,000,000 deposits, closed its doors at 9 a. m. today.

This is the first time a St. Paul bank has closed during the agricultural depression.

The closing came after a practically all night session of the directors and officers with A. J. Veigel, state superintendent of banks.

The difficulties, Mr. Veigel said, are due to frozen assets in the form of North Dakota land Montana paper, which cannot now be liquidated. The bank has a capital stock of $500,000 and is operated in connection with the Capital National bank. The national institution, it is said, is not affected by the closing.

The reports here are the other St. Paul banks and the clearing houses will come to the aid of the Capital Trust & Savings bank. H. L. Mitchell is president of the bank. It was organized December 16, 1890.

Run Is Started

As news of the failure of the trust company spread about town, depositors in both institutions started a run that reached its height shortly after noon.

The building at Fifth and Robert streets was thronged with clamoring depositors.

Police kept fairly good order, but many were jostled about and many women had to be assisted out into the air.

An old shoemaker who had saved $800 after many years to bring his family over from Europe fainted in the trust company lobby and was taken away in an ambulance.

The state of Minnesota, it was learned, had $46,000 in the institution when it closed, but will lose little since surety bonds cover state deposits. The interest, however, may be lost.

Long after the bank's noon closing time, the lobby still was thronged and officials feared to close the withdrawal windows in the face of customers. An hour after noon the lobby was still jammed. The Merchants Trust and Merchants National bank and the First National bank were helping out the Capital National bank.

THOUGHT MARTIN MAY BE FLY-ING OVERLAND, INSTEAD OF ALONG COAST

A BLINDING SNOW
STORM

(By United Press)

Cordova, Alaska, May 3.—First word of Major Frederick L. Martin and Sergeant Alva Harvey, round the world fliers, since they hopped off from Chignik for Dutch Harbor, has come to leaders of the search for the missing fliers.

Alaskan Indians living in a little native village town at the head of Chignik lagoon, reported that they saw Martin's plane, the Seattle, flying over the lagoon Wednesday.

This caused the belief that Martin had altered his course somewhat on account of the winds and poor visibility after leaving Chignik, and instead of following the coast as planned, has taken the overland route across the Alaskan peninsula.

RADIO STATIONS SEEK LOST FLIERS

Bremerton, Washington, May 3.—Northern radio stations reported today that despite a thorough search along the Alaskan coast line from Chignik to Dutch Harbor, no trace has been found of Major Frederick L. Martin, commander of the American round the world flight squadron.

Fears were expressed that Major Martin and his mechanic, Sergeant Alva Harvey, who have not been heard from since Wednesday when they took off from Chignik in a blinding snow storm, are short of food and suffering severely from exposure even if fortunate enough to land safely.

Every inland cove and bay along the coast was being scoured by government vessels in the hope that the daring aviators might still be found.

This word came in a radiogram from Lieutenant Smith who has assumed command of the flight, to the headquarters of the 13th naval district here. Smith said if flying weather permitted, they would not stop at Nazan Islands at Atka as scheduled, but would continue on to Chignik on the island of Attu.

Such a jump would total 880 miles—probably the longest of the entire flight.

VILLAGE CLERK HANGED HIMSELF

(By United Press)
Logansville, Wis., May 3.—William Westedt, 45, village clerk of Logansville and prominent businessman here, hanged himself in a barn back of his home today.

The body was found by his son Paul, 12.

Dependancy over ill health was believed by police to be the cause of his act.

Birds May Share Fate of Antelope and Bison

America's effort to preserve her game bird supply has proved a complete failure, according to T. Gilbert Pearson, president of National Association of Audubon Societies. He says that many species of birds are declining so rapidly that they are as sure to pass as have the antelope and bison.

"Some time ago," said Mr. Pearson, "Prof. Henry Fairfield Osborne, head of the American Museum of Natural History, issued a widely quoted statement that the animal kingdom is tottering. He said that nothing in the history of creation has paralleled the ravages of the fur and hide trade, which threatens the entire vertebrate kingdom, and he added that final cause of the close of the age of mammals can only be arrested through the creation of sound sentiment and education of the women and children."

"In the same manner the bird kingdom is tottering and will fall unless the National Association of Audubon Societies keeps up its work of arresting the destruction of birds."

Smoothing Concrete

Concrete in the rough was for a long time treated with carborundum or some other abrasive stone to remove from it unsightly surface board marks. Concrete houses where a cement wash or paint is later used are usually treated in this way.

An electric surfacing machine which works dry, that is, without the application of water, performs the task much more quickly and produces a more perfect surface. The cutter discs operate at a speed of 2,000 revolutions, under pressure. One set of cutters will do about 3,000 square feet of surfacing.

The discs revolve only when pressed upon the surface of the concrete, and operate absolutely square to it.

Petaun Grows Roses

Marshal Petaun, one of the outstanding figures of the World war, has been awarded a medal by the French Agricultural society for developing a new species of blue roses. This rose, it was said, may be kept flowering for weeks. The marshal bought an abandoned farm on the Riviera, southeastern France, just after the war and his success with roses has been phenomenal. Perfume makers are organizing to market the Petaun brand.

SATURDAY, MAY 3, 1924

PARADE TO BE A FEATURE

The parade on "Better Sires Day" in Brainerd, Saturday, May 10th, will be a feature of the celebration. The Brainerd Boys band has been secured to play and will lead the parade. As everything done by the director, Prof. Pflock, is done thoroughly or not at all, he is now engaged in training his youthful proteges in correct marching. The boys play very well and Mr. Pflock wants them to march with precision too.

The Echo stock farm will have in line some of its finest animals. The farm has one of the best Holstein herds in this section. Of course, the place of honor will be accorded the yearling bulls, Holsteins and Guernseys, which have been apportioned the various farmer organizations and each animal will be in charge of its respective caretaker.

The United Commercial Travelers of America Council No. 545, always good friends of the farmers, expect to march and as an added attraction plan on having the Hedstrom orchestra, dispensing sweet music, ensconced on a truck leading the delegation. An orchestra in a street parade is a novelty in Brainerd and was successfully tried out in Hibbing by Brainerd Elks at the last state convention of the order.

The Lions club may add their quartet and there may also be a representation of Brainerd Rotarians in line. Both clubs have shown their interest in the farmers in substantial ways.

There is bound to be a large attendance of farmers. The various "blocks" of the Pure-Bred Sires association will in itself bring to the city a large presentation. Coupled with this will be the attendance of business men, professional men, large banking interests, whole agricultural committees from Chambers of Commerce and Commercial clubs, newspaper men, magazine and farm paper writers, railroad men, the Northern Pacific railway company president, Charles Donnelly and his staff, including probably the development and immigration section.

Every effort will be made to get most of the state represented at this "Better Sires Day" in Brainerd. The whole idea of the Chamber of Commerce in its handling of the better sires movement is a novel one. The idea is not patented. Any community with the spirit and enterprise shown by the Brainerd Chamber of Commerce is welcome to copy it. If the whole state, in its dairy sections, can be made to thrive as will the Brainerd region, it will help all of us.

ALFALFA CROP GROWING

ALFALFA is destined to become one of the leading crops in Crow Wing county. According to figures compiled by County Agent E. G. Roth, the per cent of increase in acreage of 1924 over the alfalfa grown in 1923 will amount to 400 per cent.

This phase of the crop is of interest to the growers. To make Grimm alfalfa a leading—perhaps the leading—forage plant in Minnesota and to build up for Minnesota growers a permanent industry in producing pure Grimm alfalfa seed are objectives of the Minnesota Grimm Alfalfa Growers' association which was organized recently through the initiative of farm crop specialists of the University of Minnesota.

Directors of the association have just held their first meeting for the consideration of plans to carry out the original program. Efforts will be made to bar inferior strains of alfalfa from the state. The directors decided to accept for certification in Minnesota any Grimm alfalfa seed certified as genuine by the proper authorities in neighboring states. But seed coming into Minnesota under affidavit from neighborhood states, or from seed certified by other than the proper authorities, must pass through three winter tests before being considered for Minnesota certification.

The directors will ask alfalfa growers to bind themselves to deliver seed to a proposed central cleaning plant, and appointed a committee to prepare a form of such contract. A second committee will investigate the matter of providing warehouse space and cleaning machinery for the handling of the 1924 seed crop.

THE ASSESSOR, COOPERATE WITH HIM

THE St. Paul Daily News has a timely editorial on cooperating with the assessor when he makes his annual visit. Just now he is distributing the assessment blanks to the property holders. The sensible householder instead of being disagreeable will find it to his advantage to cooperate with the assessor when he calls. It will enable you to gain a fair assessment, for, as a general proposition, friendly cooperation even with an assessor pays better than hostile obstruction.

MILADY'S TOILET

DAILY advances are made in articles for Milady's toilet. The newest thing is a rouge for lips which makes a kiss a smearless one. The lipstick originated is not proof against kissing, but when such an osculatory exercise is indulged in, one need not carry with him the imprint.

Demonstrators at the Illinois Hairdressers' association meeting in Chicago said that many a home had been broken up because of telltale red imprints left by the old-fashioned lipstick.

WOMEN AND THE MOVIES

MOVIE censorship will be a live topic at the coming biennial convention of the General Federation of Women's clubs at Los Angeles June 2 to 13. The federation has endorsed state censorship, but not federal censorship. As Hollywood, center of the movies, is near by, the club women will visit the movie capital and studios.

MORE than $1,250,000 a day is required to keep up the task of saving from starvation the men, women and children of Germany who are unable to support themselves, Dr. Herman Rau, executive secretary of the combined charitable and social agencies of Germany, told members of the Minneapolis committee for the relief of starving German children, at a meeting Monday.

THE United States supreme court will no doubt be called upon to state distinctly how far the authority of congressional investigating committees extends.

ENGR. MURPHY'S BULLETIN

 County Commissioners Made Final Inspection and Acceptance of Bridge North of Crosby

 With nice weather promised for Sunday, Brainerd motorists will be interested in highway conditions throughout the county, and the following report is furnished by County Highway Engineer, Walter M.
 Murphy:

 State Road No. 1. (Thirteenth street to Morrison county line). In general this road is good, several holes having been repaired. Morrison county is building a road this season to connect with No. 1.

 State Road No. 2. (Dewey highway running east and west through southern tier of townships). Road is narrow, rough in places, but is passable and generally fair.

 State Road No. 3. (Brainerd, Mer-rillfield, Emily). Mill street maintained by county, is in fine condition.
 Tractor and grader working from river bridge to Velvet Beach, road good. To Emily, very good with a few sandy spots near Cross lake.

 State Road No. 4. (Crosby north to Emily). Crosby to river bridge over old trail, narrow and very crooked, surface is good. Approaches at both ends of bridge have just been surfaced with marl and guardrails will be installed next week. First three and one-half miles north of bridge good. Take detour at this point for one and one-half miles until surfacing on new road has had opportunity to settle. To Emily very good. Emily to Cass county line the road is in best condition it has been this year. Grubbing and clearing has been completed to widen this road, which work will be done

 this season, it is expected.

 The county commissioners made their final inspection and acceptance of the bridge north of Crosby on Friday, this matter being held up to see how the cement floor of the structure would stand the winter season. The bill will be allowed at today's meeting of the commissioners.

 State Road No. 5. (Deerwood, Bay lake and south) Deerwood south to Hildfield hill, excellent, to Bay lake gravel is loose, necessitating careful driving. South over new construction along lake to Workman's corner on Trunk Highway No. 18, only recently surfaced and is still soft. One of the most scenic drives in the county.

 White lines throughout the county are reported in good condition, those in the northern part of the county being better than the ones in the southern section. The "Inland Trail" from Merrillfield north to Pelcan lake, had some work done upon it last season, but is in need of more surfacing to carry the heavy travel to which it will be subjected this year. The white line road from Pequot to Breezy Point is in excellent condition.

 Trunk highways throughout the county are in very good shape, probably the best that they have been this year.

Pupils Use Mirrors

 The use of mirrors in schools in London has been recommended to promote self-pride and cleanliness.

The Embarrassing Cost

 Those who know Heywood Brown, the able New York critic, will particularly enjoy the following from his pen. There is much that he leaves to our imagination back of the lines:—

 The newspaper advertisement said that a person could hardly expect to attend a football game in comfort unless he bought one of the coats.
 It added that the price had been so materially reduced that every purchaser had right to regard himself as a fortunate investor.

 We bought a coat and until yesterday it was entirely satisfactory.
 More than that, we were rather enthusiastic about it—until yesterday.
 It was yesterday that we went, by some unlucky chance, to the zoo in Central Park. The seals did not disturb us and we watched the bears, brown and white, with perfect equanimity. Turning south from the bear den we paused in front of a cage which contained a small furry animal. To our astonishment he took one look at us and then retreated to the far corner of his cof-fine and began to make whimpering noises.

 A horrid realization came to us.
 We read the sign above the cage,
 and, just as we feared, it said "Raccoon." By that time we were a good deal more embarrassed than he was.
 Fear and loathing was his trouble, but at least there was nothing for him to be ashamed of.

 Naturally we knew when we bought the coat that the fur of the raccoon was not simply sheared off each season like the wool of a sheep, but at that time we did not realize the size of raccoons. We had fancied an animal a good deal larger. No notion had entered our head of the number of raccoons which must have made the supreme sacrifice before our coat could be constructed. Now we knew that there had been shambles and a massacre. No wonder the little fellow in the cage retreated to the far corner.

 Our first impulse was to plead ignorance. We thought of telling him that after all we had not ordered the coat in advance, but had merely happened upon it, a ready-made garment, long after the destruction had already been accomplished. If we had not bought it, somebody else would. But the day was much too cold and gloomy to solace a frightened raccoon with sophistries. He wanted peace and silence in which to forget rather than explanations.

 And so we went away and looked at the inclosure in which the cow lives. She seemed placid enough and the thought of beefsteaks must have come from our own guilty sub-conscious. Next door were pigs, and there we did not care to pause, either and review our relations with the animal kingdom. At length we found the llama and peace of mind, for, to the best of our knowledge and belief, we have never been instrumental in doing anything to him or any of his kind.

 If we ever have money enough to buy another fur coat, we are going to get a nutria or some other skin which cannot return in living form to shame and haunt us. We don't

PROMISED SUNDAY

Brainerd Motorists Interested to Know Roads of Vicinity Are in Fair Shape

ENGR. MURPHY'S BULLETIN

County Commissioners Made Final Inspection and Acceptance of Bridge North of Crosby

With nice weather promised for Sunday, Brainerd motorists will be interested in highway conditions throughout the county, and the following report is furnished by County Highway Engineer, Walter M. Murphy:

State Road No. 1. (Thirteenth street to Morrison county line). In general this road is good, several holes having been repaired. Morrison county is building a road this season to connect with No. 1.

State Road No. 2. (Dewey highway running east and west through southern tier of townships) Road is narrow, rough in places, but is passable and generally fair.

State Road No. 3. (Brainerd, Merrifield, Emily) Mill street maintained by county, is in fine condition. Tractor and grader working from river bridge to Velvet Beach, road good. To Emily, very good with a few sandy spots near Cross lake.

State Road No. 4. (Crosby north to Emily) Crosby to river bridge over old trail, narrow and very crooked, surface is good. Approaches at both ends of bridge have just been surfaced with marl and guardrails will be installed next week. First three and one-half miles north of bridge good. Take detour at this point for one and one-half miles until surfacing on new road has had opportunity to settle. To Emily very good. Emily to Cass county line the road is in best condition it has been this year. Grubbing and clearing has been completed to widen this road, which work will be done this season, it is expected.

The county commissioners made their final inspection and acceptance of the bridge north of Crosby on Friday, this matter being held up to see how the cement floor of the structure would stand the winter season. The bill will be allowed at today's meeting of the commissioners.

State Road No. 5. (Deerwood, Bay lake and south) Deerwood south to Hinfeld hill, excellent, to Bay lake gravel is loose, necessitating careful driving. South over new construction along lake to Workman's corner on Trunk Highway No. 18, only recently surfaced and is still soft. One of the most scenic drives in the county.

White lines throughout the county are reported in good condition, those in the northern part of the county being better than the ones in the southern section. The "Inland Trail" from Merrifield north to Pelican lake, had some work done upon it last season, but is in need of more surfacing to carry the heavy travel to which it will be subjected this year. The white line road from Pequot to Breezy Point is in excellent condition.

Trunk highways throughout the county are in very good shape, probably the best that they have been this year.

The life of a permanent magnet magnetized in any manner whatever has never been determined. A magnet made of the best quality steel, properly heat treated and aged and used under the best conditions of service would probably deteriorate only a negligible amount in the lifetime of a single observer.

"Life" of a Magnet

The life of a permanent magnet magnetized in any manner whatever has never been determined. A magnet made of the best quality steel, properly heat treated and aged and used under the best conditions of service would probably deteriorate only a negligible amount in the lifetime of a single observer.

Work of Education by Better Homes In America Endorsed By Foremost American Women

The average man spends the greater portion of his life in his home. He eats there, sleeps there, spends most of his leisure hours there. Making the world a better place to live in resolves itself to a large extent into making the home really deserving of that title. And that is the aim of Better Homes in America.

This organization, entirely divorced from commercialism of any kind, and in which President Coolidge, Secretary Hoover, and a host of influential and forward-looking American men and women are deeply interested and directly connected, is striving to help American families get the utmost out of their homes—to make them as nearly perfect in beauty, comfort, efficiency, and economy as each family's means will permit.

The organization is now in its third year, having been entirely reorganized early in 1924, with Dr. James Ford, of the faculty of Harvard University, in active charge of the work. Dr. Ford was granted special leave of absence in order that he might undertake this public service.

The Better Homes in America message is carried throughout the country by means of demonstrations of "better homes" in cities, towns, villages and in rural sections. These local demonstrations are under the general supervision and direction of the national headquarters of Better Homes in America, now located in Washington, but local responsibility and initiative are emphasized and given full play everywhere.

Mrs. Thomas G. Winter, president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, whose picture is shown above, is an active worker for the Better Homes in America movement. Mrs. Winter is a member of the Advisory Council of Better Homes in America, and has repeatedly and strongly urged upon the clubwomen of America support of and active participation in Better Homes demonstrations in their communities.

Peanut Oil.

Peanut oil is one of the prime necessities of the Chinese in South China, and means as much to them as olive oil to the Spaniard and as lard to the American. It is the cooking oil and foodstuff of the race. Consul Lekoy Webber reports from Hongkong that both imports and exports of the oil at Hongkong are steadily increasing. During the first quarter of 1923 imports reached the high total of $738,796, and exports $571,920. Large stocks of peanut oil are always maintained in Hongkong. Most of the local oil is crushed from nuts grown in the colony. In South China and in North China. Exports are shipped chiefly to nearby markets in South China, the Straits Settlement, the United States, Indo-China, Siam, the Philippines and Canada.

No Sore Throats in Oil Fields

Sore throats, diphtheria and many similar complaints are practically unknown among those employed in the oil fields, refineries and other branches of the petroleum industry.

SAYS KIDNEYS CLOG AND NEED FLUSHING

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which helps to remove the body's urinous waste and stimulate them to their normal activity.

The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of good water — you can't drink too much; also get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts. Take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in the system so they are no longer a source of irritation, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; can not injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to help keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this; also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.—Adv.

$200,000 LUMBER DEAL COMPLETED

Brainerd Holdings of Mahlum Lumber Co. Acquired by Lampert Bros. Lumber Co., Minneapolis

REPORT OF SALE CONFIRMED

In Making Transfer Mahlum Co. Retains Identity, Retains Planning Mill and Outside Yards

Arrangements were completed on Friday whereby the Brainerd Holdings of the Mahlum Lumber Company were transferred to the Lampert Brothers Lumber Company of Minneapolis, which firm will take possession of the property on Monday, May 5th. The deal involved approximately $200,000, it is reported. This announcement does not come as a surprise, since rumors of the sale have been prevalent for the past week, but it was only this morning that the officers of the Mahlum Lumber Company confirmed the report.

In making this transfer of the local yard, the Mahlum Lumber Company does not go out of existence. It will retain its planning mill in Brainerd and the lumber yards at Crosby and Pine River.

The Mahlum Lumber Company was organized twenty-five years ago, and is probably the largest yard in the city. Under the active management of its president, Mons Mahlum it has had a steady growth and has enjoyed a generous patronage. Mr. Mahlum has always conducted the business on the very highest plane, endeavoring to give the people of this locality the very best possible service. It is with sincere regret that his many friends will learn that he is severing his connections with the lumber company.

The officers of the Mahlum Lumber Company are Mons Mahlum, president; A. G. Trommald, vice president and Milton Mahlum, secretary and treasurer. All are well known business men of the city.

The Lampert Brothers Lumber Company is one of the largest doing business in the state. It is better known in other sections of Minnesota in North and South Dakota and Wisconsin, operating some seventy-five line yards in these states.

It is with a certain degree of satisfaction that the Mahlum Lumber Company is transferring its local yard to the Lampert Brothers Lumber Company. The new firm comes very highly recommended, is a most progressive concern interested in the welfare and upbuilding of every community in which it is connected. It is a company that is in a position to extend every courtesy and service to its patrons that could reasonably be expected of any firm in this business.

The manager of the Brainerd yard is to be J. A. Krause, formerly of Breckenridge, who has already arrived, and is assisting today in taking an inventory of the yard. It is stated that all of the employees of the Mahlum Lumber Company will be retained by the new management. Mr. Mahlum has not stated his plans for the future. He has many business interests both in Brainerd and on the range that will occupy much of his time.

The Lampert Lumber Company will make a formal announcement of its policies in an early issue of the Dispatch.

Cook-Peterson

Announcements have been received of the marriage of Miss Elma M. Peterson and Elbin I. Cook, which occurred on Thursday at International Falls. The bride is well known in Brainerd, where she lived while attending the Commercial College. The newlyweds will make their home at Gemmill.

Farewell Party

A farewell party was given at the home of Mrs. O. C. Erickson in honor of Mrs. Emma Jaba last evening. A bountiful luncheon was served by the hostess and an enjoyable time was had by all.

Mrs. Jaba leaves for Kalispell, Montana, where she will join her son and family who have recently located there.

BRAINERD'S ODDEST STORIES OF TODAY

Twenty-six years ago Mrs. Ida Kuehmichel, wife of George Kuehmichel of this city, lost her wedding ring while they made their home in Red Lake Falls. She sent the ring to Brainerd and Mrs. Kuehmichel was overjoyed to recover it.

$200,000 LUMBER DEAL COMPLETED

Brainerd Holdings of Mahlum Lumber Co. Acquired by Lampert Bros. Lumber Co., Minneapolis

REPORT OF SALE CONFIRMED

In Making Transfer Mahlum Co. Retains Identity, Retains Planing Mill and Outside Yards

Arrangements were completed on Friday whereby the Brainerd Holdings of the Mahlum Lumber Company were transferred to the Lampert Brothers Lumber Company of Minneapolis, which firm will take possession of the property on Monday, May 5th. The deal involved approximately $200,000, it is reported. This announcement does not come as a surprise, since rumors of the sale have been prevalent for the past week, but it was only this morning that the officers of the Mahlum Lumber Company confirmed the report.

In making this transfer of the local yard, the Mahlum Lumber Company does not go out of existence. It will retain its planning mill in Brainerd and the lumber yards at Crosby and Pine River.

The Mahlum Lumber Company was organized twenty-five years ago, and is probably the largest yard in the city. Under the active management of its president, Mons Mahlum it has had a steady growth and has enjoyed a generous patronage. Mr. Mahlum has always conducted the business on the very highest plane, endeavoring to give the people of this locality the very best possible service. It is with sincere regret that his many friends will learn that he is severing his connections with the lumber company.

The officers of the Mahlum Lumber Company are Mons Mahlum, president; A. G. Trommald, vice president and Milton Mahlum, secretary and treasurer. All are well known business men of the city.

The Lampert Brothers Lumber Company is one of the largest doing business in the state. It is better known in other sections of Minnesota in North and South Dakota and Wisconsin, operating some seventy-five line yards in these states.

It is with a certain degree of satisfaction that the Mahlum Lumber Company is transferring its local yard to the Lampert Brothers Lumber Company. The new firm comes very highly recommended, is a most progressive concern interested in the welfare and upbuilding of every community in which it is connected. It is a company that is in a position to extend every courtesy and service to its patrons that could reasonably be expected of any firm in this business.

The manager of the Brainerd yard is to be J. A. Krause, formerly of Breckenridge, who has already arrived, and is assisting today in taking an inventory of the yard. It is stated that all of the employees of the Mahlum Lumber Company will be retained by the new management. Mr. Mahlum has not stated his plans for the future. He has many business interests both in Brainerd and on the range that will occupy much of his time.

The Lampert Lumber Company will make a formal announcement of its policies in an early issue of the Dispatch.

Twenty-six years ago Mrs. Ida Kuchmichiel, wife of George Kuchmichiel of this city, lost her wedding ring while they made their home in Red Lake Falls. TILDEN ROW ENDANGERS THE DAVIS CUP

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, May 3.—Injection of personalities by the United States Lawn Tennis Association into the controversy with William T. Tilden, the national champion, has placed the United States in a position where it is seriously in danger of losing possession of the Davis Cup.

The Davis Cup is one of the most valuable trophies in the world of sport. It is emblematic of the world's tennis championship and, as has been pointed out in the past, it is the only trophy that really represents a championship of the whole world.

The Davis Cup strayed away from the United States several years ago, and it was brought back from Australia only after the United States had paid thousands of dollars to send teams across the world after it and after Bill Tilden and Bill Johnston had made the sacrifice of time that represented thousands of dollars to them to travel around and battle for the trophy.

To a nation that is inclined to boast of its prowess on athletic fields, the Davis Cup means much. It is as much to be desired as the international polo cup and the America (yacht) Cup.

With Tilden available, the chance for any foreign nation to take the cup away from the United States this summer was very small. Without Tilden, the chance is very good. Tilden could be counted upon for two points in the challenge round and two points are a big start in a five-point match.

There is much in the controversy between the association and Tilden to make the public feel—"let's have no more of it." Tennis fans are interested chiefly in the playing of the game, and not in controversies about who is to run the game.

There is no doubt that the association felt it was doing something to preserve the game when it ruled that a player who engaged in literary work for a substantial compensation was not a real amateur at heart. There is also no reason to believe that Tilden feels that he is doing nothing wrong when he accepts a contract to write articles on and about tennis for newspaper publication.

The association, after hearing an appeal from Tilden for exception from the rule, stated, unofficially, that it could not grant him immunity from the rule.

Tilden then announced that only one course was open to him and that at the end of 1924 he would be forced to withdraw from amateur competition to pursue his literary work.

Rather graciously, Tilden offered his services for any purpose desired through the season of 1924 and then proceeded to go quietly about his business.

The argument should have stopped there without any more words. The association had told Tilden that he could not play and write, and Tilden answered by saying that he would respect the sovereignty of the association and that he would write and not play.

Instead of maintaining a dignified position, the amateur rules committee, which had handled the controversy, came out, through its chairman, Holcombe Ward, with a personal blast against Tilden, in face of which he could not remain silent.

Although there had been no personalities in the entire discussion, Ward broke out with an attack on Tilden in which, among other things, he accused the champion of being an "evil influence" on the game. This attack was entirely uncalled for and it served to arouse the belief that the association was not as sure of its ground as it would like to have it believed.

Tilden then announced that he was forced to resign from the Olympic and the Davis Cup teams. But he said he would play in the national championships.

The champion argued that as he had been told he would be declared a professional on Jan. 1, 1925, for doing something that he is now doing, that he is a professional now and not eligible for amateur competition. He did not explain, however, why he did not feel himself qualified as an amateur in the Olympic and Davis Cup matches and yet could be an amateur for the national championships.

Tilden has always been regarded as a temperamental star and there is much of the artist and the ways of an artist in him, but before Ward came out with his blast it was not believed that there were any prima donnas in the membership of the executive council.

Having gone so far in the crusade against the player-writer it is not logical that the association should back down at this late date. If the association feels that it is fighting for the right and the just, it will have to stick to its ground and rule Tilden out of tennis unless he quits writing.

It would have been much better, however, for the association to have avoided personalities and to have left no impression that it was after any individual players.

RICKARD PREPARES FOR WILLS-DEMPESEY FIGHT OF SEPT. 6

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

New York, May 3.—Certain that he will get Jack Dempsey's signature on the articles, Tex Rickard proceeded today with plans for the Dempsey-Wills heavyweight championship fight in Jersey City Sept. 6.

Rickard said he had gone over the ground thoroughly and had practically made all arrangements. The new law in New Jersey will permit him to charge a top price of $25 for tickets and he wants to sell the cheapest seats at $5.

Engineers already have drawn plans for the reinforcement of the big pine stadium where Dempsey and Carpenter fought. Work will be started as soon as the weather becomes settled.

Rickard thinks that he may be able to provide seating room for 100,000 spectators and he feels that the receipts are certain to be in excess of $1,000,000.

While no figures were made public by Rickard it is understood that Wills accepted terms for a guarantee of $200,000 or an option on accepting a percentage of the receipts. Dempsey, no doubt, will insist upon an option of a percentage if it should bring him more than $500,000.

Talk that Dempsey might balk through fear of the colored challenger is all bunk. The champion has allowed the opinion to circulate that he was afraid of Wills for the purpose of steaming up the fight. As a matter of fact, the fight needs little steam. Wills is the outstanding challenger for the title if for no other reason than that Dempsey never has beaten him, while the other challengers have shown that they cannot defeat him.

Dempsey ought to win from Wills, and he should have no more trouble than he had with Firpo. It is quite certain that he can't come closer to losing the title against Wills than he did when he was fighting Firpo and leave the ring the champion.

Paddy Mullins, manager of Wills, said this morning that his fighter was now training and that he was in fine physical condition.

He needs a couple of fights to get him on edge, however, and he will get one workout on May 12 when he meets Bartley Madden at the Queensborough club. He has another chance to get a good workout against Quintin Romero.

Trustees of Church Insure Pastor's Life

A new idea in church building finance made its appearance in Rochester, N. Y., recently when the trustees of the Baptist temple, who are putting up a combined church and office building in that city, insured the life and health of their pastor, the Rev. Clinton Wunder, for $100,000 for the benefit of the church, the premium to be paid out of the building fund.

Success of the undertaking depends so much upon the Rev. Wunder's energy, initiative and devotion, the trustees explained, that his death or disability would be an irreparable blow to it, and the insurance is taken out to protect the plan so far as money can do it.

The policy calls for fifteen payments. In the event of the pastor's total disability the church will receive $3,000 a year; in case of the death it will receive the full amount of $100,000.

At the expiration of twelve years, if the church desires to surrender the policy, it will have $50,000 in cash to apply on the payment of its second mortgage bonds, which become due at that time. The premium will amount to approximately $4,000 a year.

TILDEN ROW ENDANGERS THE DAVIS CUP

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, May 3.—Injection of personalities by the United States Lawn Tennis Association into the controversy with William T. Tilden, the national champion, has placed the United States in a position where it is seriously in danger of losing possession of the Davis Cup.

The Davis Cup is one of the most valuable trophies in the world of sport. It is emblematic of the world's tennis championship and, as has been pointed out in the past, it is the only trophy that really represents a championship of the whole world.

The Davis Cup strayed away from the United States several years ago, and it was brought back from Australia only after the United States had paid thousands of dollars to send teams across the world after it and after Bill Tilden and Bill Johnston had made the sacrifice of time that represented thousands of dollars to them to travel around and battle for the trophy.

To a nation that is inclined to boast of its prowess on athletic fields, the Davis Cup means much. It is as much to be desired as the international polo cup and the America (yacht) Cup.

With Tilden available, the chance for any foreign nation to take the cup away from the United States this summer was very small. Without Tilden, the chance is very good. Tilden could be counted upon for two points in the challenge round and two points are a big start in a five-point match.

There is much in the controversy between the association and Tilden to make the public feel—"let's have no more of it." Tennis fans are interested chiefly in the playing of the game, and not in controversies about who is to run the game.

There is no doubt that the association felt it was doing something to preserve the game when it ruled that a player who engaged in literary work for a substantial compensation was not a real amateur at heart. There is also no reason to believe that Tilden feels that he is doing nothing wrong when he accepts a contract to write articles on and about tennis for newspaper publication.

The association, after hearing an appeal from Tilden for exception from the rule, stated, unofficially, that it could not grant him immunity from the rule.

Tilden then announced that only one course was open to him and that at the end of 1924 he would be forced to withdraw from amateur competition to pursue his literary work.

Rather graciously, Tilden offered his services for any purpose desired through the season of 1924 and then proceeded to go quietly about his business.

The argument should have stopped there without any more words. The association had told Tilden that he could not play and write, and Tilden answered by saying that he would respect the sovereignty of the association and that he would write and not play.

Instead of maintaining a dignified position, the amateur rules committee, which had handled the controversy, came out, through its chairman, Holcombe Ward, with a personal blast against Tilden, in face of which he could not remain silent.

Although there had been no personalities in the entire discussion, Ward broke out with an attack on Tilden in which, among other things, he accused the champion of being an "evil influence" on the game. This attack was entirely uncalled for and it served to arouse the belief that the association was not as sure of its ground as it would like to have it believed.

Tilden then announced that he was forced to resign from the Olympic and the Davis Cup teams. But he said he would play in the national championships.

The champion argued that as he had been told he would be declared a professional on Jan. 1, 1925, for doing something that he is now doing, that he is a professional now and not eligible for amateur competition.

He did not explain, however, why he did not feel himself qualified as an amateur in the Olympic and Davis Cup matches and yet could be an amateur for the national championships.

Tilden has always been regarded as a temperamental star and there is much of the artist and the ways of an artist in him, but before Ward came out with his blast it was not believed that there were any prima donnas in the membership of the executive council.

Having gone so far in the crusade against the player-writers it is not logical that the association should back down at this late date. If the association feels that it is fighting for the right and the just, it will have to stick to its ground and rule Tilden out of tennis unless he quits writing.

It would have been much better, however, for the association to have avoided personalities and to have left no impression that it was after any individual players.

Statue of Apis Found Near Budapest, Hungary

The discovery of the statue of Apis, the Egyptian bull of Memphis, and a pyramid in the former capital of the old Roman colony of Pannonia, near Budapest, Hungary, which has just been announced, is looked upon as constituting further proof that Egyptian culture was spread wherever the Roman legions penetrated in the second century.

These valuable relics will be examined by international experts.

RICKARD PREPARES FOR WILLS-DEMPSEY FIGHT OF SEPT. 6

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

New York, May 3.—Certain that he will get Jack Dempsey's signature on the articles, Tex Rickard proceeded today with plans for the Dempsey-Wills heavyweight championship fight in Jersey City Sept. 6.
